

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Theme 1: Religion	Christianity	Christianity	Judaism	Christianity	Islam	All
Topic	Commandments	Christmas: Light	Purism and the story of Esther	The Significance of Easter	Ramadan	Signs and Symbols
Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To understand the reason for rules at home and in the community</li> <li>• To understand how people put these rules into practice</li> <li>• To know how God gave Moses the 10 Commandments</li> <li>• To know Jesus' New Commandment and to understand what it means to Christians</li> <li>• To reflect what the New Commandment could mean in the children's own lives</li> <li>• To read and reflect on the Good Samaritan and how it serves as an example of Jesus' New Commandment</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Know how some Christians use candles to help them pray and focus</li> <li>• Reflect on the meaning of the Christian belief in Jesus as "the light of the world"</li> <li>• Reflect and recognise that sin is symbolised by darkness</li> <li>• Acknowledge that some special religious days are associated with celebration and joy whilst other events mark sadness and lament.</li> <li>• Describe the key events within the Christian season of Advent, the events leading up to Christmas</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explain what are meant by High Holy Days and festivals within Judaism, focusing on Purim.</li> <li>• Be able to explain the basis in the Bible and in Jewish tradition of Esther and Purim.</li> <li>• Acknowledge the importance of redemption and triumphing over good in the story.</li> <li>• Be able to describe how festivals and holy days are marked both in the home and in the synagogue.</li> <li>• Explain how the events of Esther may have impacted the lives of major characters.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explain how these are linked to the biblical stories about Jesus' passion, death and resurrection.</li> <li>• Describe the key events within the Christian season of Lent, the events of Holy Week and the celebration of Easter Day.</li> <li>• Connect the Easter story with Christian doctrines and practices, such as salvation, penance and reconciliation, heaven, forgiveness, eternal life, imposition of ashes, foot-washing and Eucharist.</li> <li>• Identify the meaning of the key symbols found it artistic</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Speak about the Islamic belief in Allah as the sole and true God who is alone as the Creator, sustainer and judge of all.</li> <li>• Express how important the Qur'an, Ramadan and the two Eid festivals are.</li> <li>• Explain how Muslims celebrate Eid.</li> <li>• Retell some stories about the Prophet Muhammad</li> <li>• Express an understanding of why the beliefs, practices and belonging are so important in Islam.</li> <li>• Appreciate how Islam impacts on life within</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Speak about the importance of symbols in most faiths.</li> <li>• Describe the biblical origins of specific symbols (cross, fish, lamb, lion, rainbow etc).</li> <li>• Explore the significance of the cross and how it can mean different things to different denominations</li> <li>• Speak about the similarities and differences between symbols in other religious traditions.</li> <li>• Identify the meanings associated with the features of a church.</li> <li>• Reflect on the feelings and emotions</li> </ul>

		including the Annunciation and the celebration of Christmas. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explain how these are linked to the biblical stories about the Nativity.</li> <li>• Connect the Christmas story and light with Christian doctrines and practices, such as salvation, love, penance and reconciliation, forgiveness, heaven.</li> <li>• Explain how many Christians mark the liturgical year and why this observation is important to them.</li> <li>• Explain how the events of Christmas may have impacted the lives of the major characters included within the biblical story.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Articulate their own response to the stages in the narrative and identify where these connect with personal experiences of hope, joy and celebration.</li> <li>• Propose questions for exploration associated with the story and suggest responses based on their own insights.</li> <li>• Be able to describe why certain days are important within religious traditions and explain the significance of this principle in Judaism.</li> <li>• Articulate their own personal responses to the patterns of believing, behaving and belonging in Judaism that are exhibited in connection with Purim.</li> <li>• Reflect on strong female role models in the Bible focusing and</li> </ul>	representations of the crucifixion and the resurrection. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Express the significance of Jesus' death and resurrection for Christians</li> <li>• Explain how many Christians mark the liturgical year and why this observation is important to them.</li> <li>• Explain how the events of Easter may have impacted the lives of the major characters included within the biblical story.</li> <li>• Articulate their own response to the stages in the Easter narrative and identify where these connect with personal experiences of sorrow, lament, joy and celebration.</li> <li>• Propose questions for exploration associated with the story of Easter and</li> </ul>	the Muslim home with reference to Ramadan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify those aspects of Islam that are praiseworthy and from which those of other (or no) faith can learn.</li> <li>• Pupils should be able to highlight the similarities and differences between Islam and other religious traditions</li> </ul>	generated by significant symbols. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Express the significance of Jesus' death and resurrection for Christians</li> <li>• Examine how the symbols are linked with Christians' worship</li> </ul> Reflect on how the symbols connect and reference important themes in religion: sorrow, holiness etc
--	--	---	--	--	---	---

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Articulate their own response to the stages in the Christmas narrative and identify where these connect with personal experiences of hope, joy and celebration.</li> <li>• Propose questions for exploration associated with the story and suggest responses based on their own insights.</li> </ul>	comparing Esther to Mary, Mary Magdelene and Ruth.	suggest responses based on their own insights. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be aware of and sensitive to the faith that Christians hold regarding the death and resurrection of Jesus and recognise the centrality of these beliefs within the church</li> <li>• Acknowledge that some special religious days are associated with celebration and joy whilst other events mark sadness and lament.</li> </ul>
Theme 2 Religion	Christianity
Topic	Parables
Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explain what a parable is and compare it to a normal 'story'</li> <li>• Explain why the events associated with the parables are so important to Christians.</li> </ul>

- Recall and describe some of the parables that Jesus used in his teaching and explain their meaning.
- Explain the inspiration that Jesus has provided for Christians and non-Christians during the history of the church through his parables, teaching and example.
- Explain why the teaching of Jesus was considered so radical and revolutionary and the reason that his message provoked opposition from the Pharisees.
- Explain how the events of Jesus' life have provided inspiration with the visual arts, film and poetry.